67 items, and the list is not a guess. It is the live Home Assistant inventory pulled this morning, cross-checked against the Zigbee roster for the real model numbers — the contacts are SONOFF SNZB-04 and the leak sensors HOBEIAN ZG-222Z, both of which the old buildout doc had wrong.

Front corrected 9:32 — the porch is a true recess cut into the north wall, not a notch beside a projecting wing, and the master bedroom's arched window is FLUSH. That drops the heated area to 1,360 sf, because a recessed porch is carved out of the house rather than added to it.

Two rooms on the plan are still mine, not yours: PANTRY and CLOSETS are drawn dashed because nothing you have said places them. Fix those two while you are on here.
